

Association of Professional Genealogists
Offers Connection, Education, and Leadership Opportunities for Young Professionals

Wheat Ridge, Colorado (May 4, 2022) — For immediate release

Clients expect a professional genealogist to have skills, experience and knowledge in a wide variety of areas: repository research, historical laws, nuances of record types in your locality or area of specialty, DNA, time management and organization skills, and strong communication skills.

The Association of Professional Genealogists (APG) is an international not-for-profit 501(c)(6) professional organization that helps young professionals improve their genealogy proficiency and experience through ongoing training and practice by focusing on Genealogical Skills and Knowledge, Connections, and Business Skills.

APG offers a 50% discount on the annual membership to all young professionals under 30. Young professionals also receive the benefits of a full membership; including leadership and networking opportunities, discounts, access to APG Quarterly and archives, and more.

Whether you are working towards a career in genealogy or taking your passion for family history research to the next step, APG helps young professionals prepare for success.

Young Professional Membership: $60 annually (payable online)

Apply online at apgen.org/join.

About the Association of Professional Genealogists

The Association of Professional Genealogists (www.apgen.org), established in 1979, represents nearly 2,500 genealogists in various genealogy-related businesses. APG encourages genealogical excellence, ethical practice, mentoring, and education. The organization also actively advocates for the preservation and accessibility of records useful to the fields of genealogy. Its members represent all fifty U.S. states, Canada, and forty other countries. APG is active on LinkedIn, Twitter and Facebook.

Media Contact:

Kathleen W. Hinckley, CG

Executive Director

Association of Professional Genealogists

P.O. Box 535, Wheat Ridge, CO 80034-0535

email: admin@apgen.org

###

APG is a registered trademark of the Association of Professional Genealogists. All other trade and service marks are property of their respective owners.